Drop-in advising located in the Admissions Office is recommended for students who need general information about BTC certificates and programs, program tuition and costs, and assistance getting started and completing the admissions process.

Running Start Advising is provided specifically for prospective and current Running Start students. Students will have an opportunity to connect with the BTC Running Start advisor, plan course schedules, receive assistance with the Running Start Verification form, and get connected to on and off-campus resources.

College Navigation is a 2-hour workshop in 3 parts: Campus Tour, Career Exploration, and Financial Resources. Students can sign up for any or all parts. Career Exploration includes a computerized aptitude test to help students identify their interests, skills, and abilities, and provides resources on career outlooks. Financial Resources gives an overview of funding resources for education.
